Questions for reflection and discussion

1. Mother Teresa believed she was called to serve the poor. Do you believe you have been called to do that? Why or why not?
2. Read Luke 10:25-37. What can you learn about compassion from the Good Samaritan? When have you personally witnessed someone responding to a need like the Samaritan did?
3. What are some of the excuses the priest and Levite might have used for ignoring the injured man? How can you improve the odds that, next time you encounter a person in need, you will respond more like the Samaritan than like the priest and Levite?
4. Read Acts 6:1-6. Is there any way in which you are combining efforts with others to meet the needs of the under-resourced? If so, with whom are you teaming up and why do you think it's better than acting individually?
5. How has the "Least of These" series changed you? How can you make sure those changes last for the rest of your life?
