

All I Want For Mother's Day...

...is for my family to _____.

Her children show their appreciation, and her husband praises her. He says, "Many women are good wives, but you are the best of them all."

—Proverbs 31:28-29 (TEV)

See also Proverbs 31:10-27; 1 Timothy 2:9-10; Titus 2:4-5; 1 Peter 3:1-6

...is for my family to _____.

...All of you, live in harmony with one another; be sympathetic, love as brothers, be compassionate and humble.

—1 Peter 3:8

See also Psalm 133:1; Colossians 3:20

...is for my family to _____.

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

—3 John 1:4

See also John 3:16; Romans 3:23; 6:23; Colossians 1:16; 1 Peter 3:18

Transformed by the Truth

Questions to help you love your wife and honor your mother

1. How did you celebrate Mother's Day?
2. If you are a woman, how would you complete this sentence? "All I want for Mother's Day is..." If you are a man, how do you think your wife (or mother, if you are not married), would complete the sentence?
3. Read Proverbs 31:28-29. Why do you think it is important for mothers to be praised? How is motherhood valued or devalued in our culture?
4. Read 1 Peter 3:8. What letter grade would you give your family for harmony? Why? How can you help improve that grade?
5. Read 3 John 4. Who in your family has the strongest relationship with Christ? Who has the weakest relationship with Him? How hopeful are you that your entire family will one day "walk in the truth"?
6. Take some time (right now) to pray, with thanksgiving, for the special women in your life.