QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION AND DISCUSSION

1. Read 1 Samuel 16:7. Why do you think it is difficult to see ourselves—and others—as God sees us? Who is someone you would find more attractive if you saw them with God's eyes?
2. Read 1 Timothy 2:9 and 1 Peter 3:3. Do you think there is anything wrong with nice clothes, expensive jewelry or styled hair? Why or why not?
3. Read 1 Peter 3:4. What do you think it means to have a gentle and quiet spirit? In what area of your life would you be more tranquil if you had deeper trust in God?
4. Read the list of good deeds in 1 Timothy 5:10. If you are a woman, grade yourself on each one. If you are a man, grade your wife (or your mother, if you are single) on each one.
5. Read Romans 10:15. When was the last time you shared the "good news" with someone? What was the result?
6. How did this week's message change your self-perception? Your feelings toward your spouse?
