1. Read Jeremiah 17:9. What is something others in our culture believe that you know to be false? What is something you believe that so deeply that no one, not even Jesus, could change your mind?
2. Read Matthew 7:24-27. Why, according to this passage, is it important to elevate the teachings of Jesus over your own moral compass?
3. Do you think Jesus really believed the Old Testament stories about Noah, Jonah and manna in the wilderness? If so, do you feel compelled to believe them? Why or why not?
4. What one passage (among those listed on your note sheet) teaches most clearly that Jesus believed the Bible He read was inspired by God?
5. Read Mark 7:8. Is there any part of the Bible that you have "nullified" for any reason? Do you think doing so has improved or reduced your quality of life?
